

Alice in Wonderland

AFTERNOON TEA

£28 per person, or enjoy with a glass of fizz for £35.

EAT ME! SWEETS

Queen of Hearts raspberry tart
Cheshire Cat macaron
White chocolate Rabbit choux bun
Curiouser and curiouser salted caramel & chocolate delight

SAVOURY

Egg mayonnaise sandwich
Smoked salmon and chive cream sandwich
Coronation chicken sandwich
Cucumber sandwich

FRESHLY BAKED

Tea party plain & fruit scones,
with jam & Dorset clotted cream

DRINK ME! TEA INFUSIONS

English Breakfast Tea - robust, malty, invigorating
Earl Grey - light, citrus, fruity
Green Tea - refreshing light, pure
Green Tea with Peach - refreshing, sweet, fruity
Chamomile Tea - silky, sweet, floral
Red Berry and Flower - punchy, fruity, tart
Peppermint - cooling, revitalising, pepper
Lemongrass and Ginger - warming, refreshing, piquant

In 1862, in a rowing boat travelling for a picnic outing, 10-year-old Alice Liddell asked Lewis Carroll to entertain her with a story.

He regaled Alice with fantastic stories of a girl, also named Alice, and her adventures after she fell into a rabbit-hole. The story would go on to be published as Alice's Adventures in Wonderland.

It's always tea time.

The grave of Alice Hargreaves can be found just down the road, in the graveyard of the church of St Michael and All Angels, in Lyndhurst.

Why is a raven like a writing-desk?

The hurrier I go, the behinder I get.

BARTLEY

LODGE

